Set to an eclectic, upbeat score, Rudyard Kipling's 'Just So Stories' are woven with wit and imagination by George Stiles and Anthony Drewe into a song-filled journey through the jungle.

The Elephant's Child goes on a quest to the Limpopo River, and en route discovers many lessons including how the leopard got his spots, how the rhinoceros got his skin and how curiosity and a hungry crocodile can turn an elephant's small nose into a very large trunk.

Be inspired by the underlying message: one determined individual can make a real difference in this world.
